BOOK WEEK 2014
We would love for parents and families to join us in our Book Week celebration, which will be held on the Friday of week 7 (29th August). After lunch, we will be completing activity rotations in classes and we will end the day with a special assembly. Students are asked to dress up as their favourite book character and bring in the book to share with their class. Please be aware that you do not have to spend a great deal of money on costumes. Be creative, search the internet or visit charity shops for some great costume ideas.

BOOK FAIR
The Book Fair is on this week in the Library. On Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday the children will have the opportunity to view the books. They may bring home a ‘wish list’ of books they would like to purchase. This is only a wish list, not an obligation to buy. Sales will commence on Thursday morning from 8.15am, at lunch and after school, concluding Friday morning. There will be a capacity for late orders if necessary.

Hope to see you there!

Librarian

YEAR 6 TASTER LESSONS

OAKVALE FARM - KINDER EXCURSION
The Kinder students are off to Oakvale Farm on Monday 18th August. It will be a very exciting day for them. They have had a great time nurturing chickens in the classroom over the past couple of weeks and this will tie in beautifully to their learning in the classroom.

SYDNEY EXCURSION - STAGE 2
The Stage 2 students are leaving early on Tuesday 19th August to visit many icons in Sydney. They are also sure to have a fabulous day and will represent the school with great pride. It is important to be here on time so no one misses the bus. The bus is expected to return to the school between 5pm and 5.30pm. It would be well appreciated if you could ensure you are here for the pick up on time.

YEAR 1 CHANGE OF SPORT DAY
Don’t forget Sport day for all Year 1 classes is now on Wednesdays.

SENIOR AND JUNIOR DANCE
Next week, (Week 6), Junior and Senior dance groups will swap days. Junior dance will be on Monday and Senior dance will be on Tuesday. This change is only for next week due to an excursion.

ABORIGINAL AND TORRES STRAIT ISLANDER EDUCATION
Due to feedback that we have received about the Aboriginal Parent and Carer Group meetings we are not having the regular catch up this Thursday. If you could please advise the school as to what days and times suit you to meet we will come up with a more suitable yarning time. The school is also forming an Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander action team with 12 staff already indicating that they would like to assist with implementing the recommendations from the recent Dare to Lead report. We are hoping that our revitalised First Australians Education teams will be able to enhance Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander learning initiatives at Glendore Public School.

NAIDOC DAY STUDENT REPORT
Last Wednesday on the 6th of August we had NAIDOC Day. Firstly all of the school went out onto the pebble crete to do the smoking ceremony. The ceremony was performed by elder Alex N, we also had some people from the High School play the didgeridoo and some others danced. After that all of Stage 3 went to get into groups to do activities. There were dance lessons, loom banding and Alex N telling us about the things the Aboriginal people used. He taught the boys to play the didgeridoo and the girls did the clap-sticks.

DEFENCE NEWS
Greetings from the Defence School Transition Aide (DSTA). Last week I was inducted into Glendore Public School as the DSTA. My role is to support Defence families as they move in and out of school and communities. So far I have met a few of the children, staff and spoken to a few parents. I would like to extend an invitation to Defence families to come to an afternoon tea being held next Monday 18th August at 1pm in the meeting rooms at the front of the hall.
Looking forward to meeting with you all.

YEAR 6 PHOTOS & FAREWELL
Parents and carers are invited to submit photographs for their Year 6 student/s showing their time at Glendore Public School. Of particular interest are the Kindergarten photos of those students who did not attend Glendore in Kindy. Some other ideas are; award ceremonies, presentation days, excursions, sports events, debating, public speaking, dance or any other school event. These photographs will be used to produce a DVD which the Year 6 students will be able to keep. You can send the photographs electronically to the school email address, hand a USB or disc to your child’s teach or send originals to be scanned. These photos are due as soon as possible.

The next meeting for the Year 6 Farewell will be held on Tuesday, 16th September at 3pm.
